ROBERT COOPER SAFARIS 2006 PRICE LIST

Pricing Code: 2006-02

KILIMANJARO CLIMBS

All prices are per person unless otherwise indicated.

Crater Overnight

May be added to any camping climb
1 Night in Crater (18,500' above sea level)

1 PAX:	$310.00
2 or more PAX:	290.00

This option does not add a day to the itinerary, but converts one night to a crater camp.

This option breaks the long summit day in two,
but the crater overnight can be taxing on mind and body.
Option is best used on climbs of 8 days or more.

Children and Kilimanjaro

Please contact us for prices for children 12 years old and younger.

The mountain policy is that children under 10 years of age should not climb higher than 9,000 feet. Our experience has been that children under 16 years of age find the mountain to be very difficult.

If considering a climb of Kilimanjaro with children (ages 10 to 15), an impartial assessment of their ability to cope with prolonged periods of fatigue, cold and general discomfort should be made.

OTHER AFRICAN CLIMBS

Jambo! Travels operates climbs on Mt. Meru (Tanzania) and Mt. Kenya (Kenya) to Point Lenana (4985m) on an as-requested basis. We offer several trails and options for these two mountains. Please contact us for current pricing and complete information for these other climbs.

GAME-VIEWING SAFARIS

All prices provided are per person sharing with supplements as indicated. Children are welcome on most game-viewing safaris, and discounts may apply (please check with us). Prices per person are quoted from 2 to 4 passengers (PAX), where applicable, and our safaris are conducted in one or two safari-prepared 4WD 110 (5 window seats) or one 140 "stretch" (7 window seats) LandRovers. We DO NOT use any minivans on our safaris because minivans cannot go to all locations during certain times of the year. Also, all of our clients not only have a window seat on safari but they do not have anyone sitting in a center seat next to them.

All of our game-viewing safaris may be taken alone or in conjunction with a Kilimanjaro or other mountain climb. When a safari is taken with a climb, we are pleased to offer a reduction in the safari's cost. Please contact us for further details.

Sunrise Balloon Safari

1-Hour Morning Flight with Champagne Breakfast

The specially equipped balloons are the largest commercial balloons used anywhere in the world, accommodating 8 to 16 guests standing in each open-air basket. A very experienced, professional pilot flies each balloon. Flights depart each morning at sunrise. After an hour or so aloft, having floated perhaps 7 to 12 miles over the Mara River or the Serengeti Plains, the Balloons descend to be greeted by the ground crew and a champagne toast. A sumptuous champagne breakfast is then served at the grassy landing site, followed by a late morning game drive back to camp. We highly recommend this experience which should be booked at the same time as your safari to ensure that space will be available. Balloon flights are available in either the Serengeti or Maasai Mara

Per Person (No Single Supplement):$395.00

Serengeti Mists

5 Days (or 6 days for Classic Camping*) Single Supplement may apply

HIGH SEASON (1 Jul - 14 Apr)

	Classic Camping	Adventure Camping
2 PAX:	$4,380.00	$2,760.00
3 PAX:	3,600.00	2,260.00
4 PAX:	3,170.00	2,050.00

LOW SEASON (15 Apr - 30 Jun)

	Classic Camping	Adventure Camping
2 PAX:	$4,140.00	$2,530.00
3 PAX:	3,380.00	2,040.00
4 PAX:	2,960.00	1,840.00

* Please Note: The Serengeti Mists Safari now uses our Adventure Camping instead of our Standard Camping, which has been phased out. Adventure Camping utilizes backpacking-style sleeping tents instead of traditional, ridge-frame safari tents. We still use private campsites best suited to game viewing given the time of year the safari runs, and we still provide mess, latrine and shower tents. There is the option of upgrading to our Classic (Special) Camping, but because there is a minimum of three camping days in the Serengeti for this category of camping, the cost/value ratio is not terribly good for the five-day itinerary. If you wish to have Classic Camping, it is better to add an additional day to the itinerary in the Serengeti since the total cost for five or six days is the same.
